

UNIVERSITY START-UPS

Lessons for TTOs in Support,
Funding, Licensing,
Ecosystem Development,
and Management

Published by Tech Transfer Central

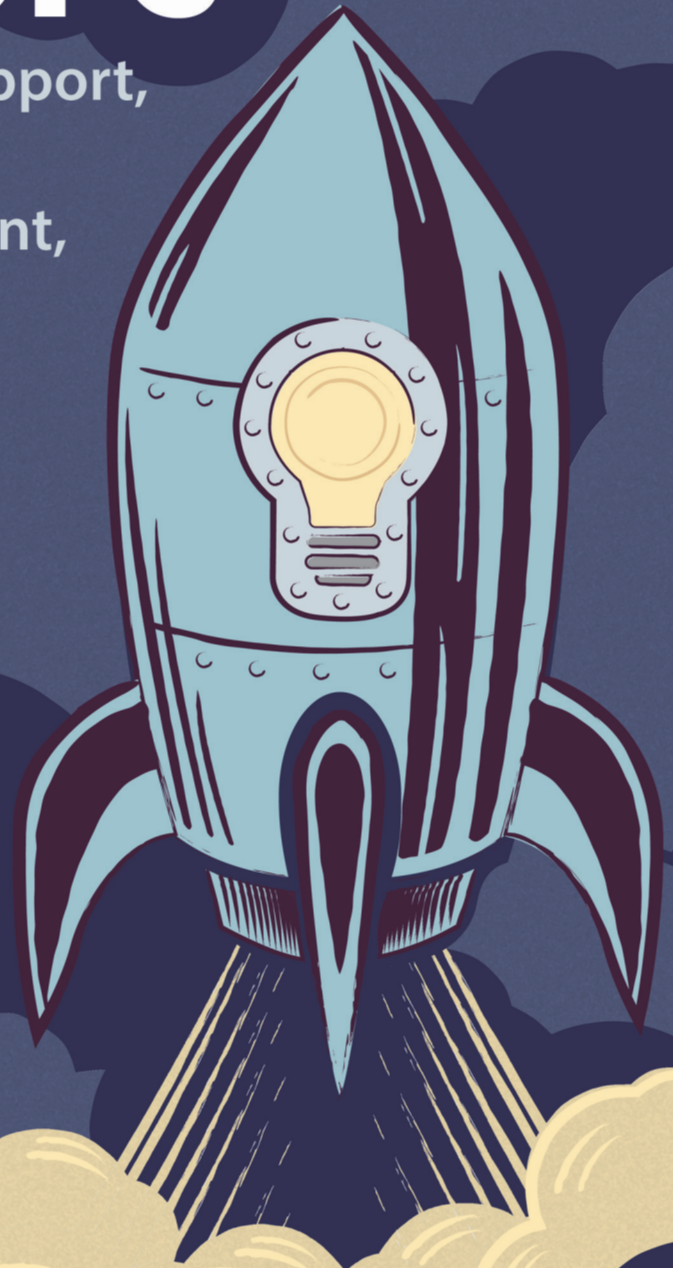

Table of Contents

Start-up Germination and Support

Venture studio model gaining traction as nurturer of university start-ups.....	3
Matchmaking Program looks to boost start-up activity and economic development.....	9
Pitch Prep helps Northwestern student start-up competition increase its value.....	11
UMSL's DEI accelerator is 'beacon of hope' for under-represented founders.....	14
Pandemic-spawned program continues in CU Boulder "hyper-accelerator" program.....	16
U Memphis hires post-docs full-time to start businesses using university IP.....	20
Venture Analyst programs employ grad students as a force multiplier.....	23
A fresh take on summer school boosts SUNY's commercialization pipeline.....	25
Student consulting club supports Emory's biotech start-up efforts.....	29
Sweat Equity Challenge attracts software start-ups for NC State.....	32
Penn State's 'ENtern' program seeks to foster future entrepreneurs.....	36
New start-up support organizations focus efforts on STEM-related fields.....	38

Start-up Funding

U-M Startup Pipeline report helps raise early-stage investment capital.....	43
Two new university venture funds look to change the start-up landscape.....	46
Baylor partners with VC to boost commercialization.....	50
As venture deal terms narrow, TTOs should focus on investor quality.....	53
As rules improve, TTOs may want to take another look at crowdfunding their start-ups.....	56
Purdue's link to Boomerang Ventures illustrates the value of third-party help for TTOs.....	59
UChicago innovation fund adds new matching requirement.....	62
Tell your SBIR/STTR companies about this little-known supplement.....	65
Student-led VCs create additional funding source for university start-ups.....	68

Start-up Licensing

Term sheet template for life science deals aims to reduce bickering and hasten license negotiations.....	75
CU Boulder paves the way for start-ups using 'Licensing with EASE®' model.....	80
U of Arkansas creates new option agreement for 'pre-incorporation' teams.....	84

U Georgia's new start-up license offers speed and favorable terms in two-phase approach	88
Universities offer best practices for fast start-up license packages	91
U Washington launches express licensing process to ease faculty frustration	94

Start-up Ecosystem Development

UMB New Venture Group's model succeeds in boosting region's start-up ecosystem.....	99
"Work from Purdue" program helps build start-up ecosystem.....	104
USF opens up its shelves of available IP to local entrepreneurs	107
NJIT targets entrepreneur gap with series of DEI-focused programs	109
Columbia program takes in non-university ventures to boost impact, grow ecosystem.....	114
UC Riverside's "Angel Summit" works to build out the local investor ecosystem.....	118
Innosphere Ventures offers TTO partners a no-cost way to help more start-ups.....	121

Start-up Management Issues

Lack of focus on scaling up may limit the long-term success of university-launched ventures	127
Rogue EIRs and mentors can bring trouble, need limits and guardrails	132
TTOs take varied approaches to EIR and mentor programs.....	136
Don't let "dead equity" complicate a cap table and stymie start-up growth	139
Commercialization Engine at Notre Dame grows start-ups with internal de-risking	143
Start-up board positions must be filled carefully and used appropriately.....	147
Using stock options as a vehicle for hiring university start-up teams	150
As university start-ups look to go public, consider license renegotiation and SPACs	154